Disaster Relief Extensions 2025 Lincoln and Doña Ana Counties

The Taxation and Revenue Department is allowing an extension for individuals and businesses that are taxpayers affected by the flooding in: Lincoln County that started on June 26, 2025, and Doña Ana County that started on July 22, 2025. This includes affected taxpayers that reside or have a business located in both counties. For more information on IRS extensions for disaster relief see B-100.43.

The extension for affected taxpayers includes:

- Gross receipts tax, compensating tax, withholding taxes, oil and gas taxes, combined fuel tax, and other excise taxes - For those returns due July 25, 2025, and August 25, 2025, the extended due date to file is October 27, 2025.

The disaster relief extension will result in no penalty or interest being imposed until the specified due date.

"Affected taxpayers" are defined under Treas. Reg 301.7508A-1(d)(1). These taxpayers include individuals who live, and businesses (including tax-exempt organizations) whose principal place of business is located, in the covered disaster area. Taxpayers not in the covered disaster area, but who have records necessary to meet a deadline listed in Treas. Reg. § 301.7508A-1(c) that are in the covered disaster area, are also entitled to the extension. In addition, all relief workers affiliated with a recognized government or philanthropic organization assisting in the relief activities in the covered disaster area and any individual visiting the covered disaster area who was killed or injured as a result of the disaster are entitled to relief.

Affected taxpayers taking advantage of the state extension should complete for TRD-41432, Disaster Relief Extension Notification.

Taxpayers may notify the Department before they file or after they receive a notice with late payment penalty and interest for returns that are covered by the extension.

Taxpayers can also complete Form RPD-41096, Extension of Time to File if they need a longer extension from what has been allowed in this bulletin.

This extension is allowed under Section 7-1-13(D) NMSA 1978:

*The secretary or the secretary's delegate may, for good cause, extend in favor of a taxpayer or a class of taxpayers, for no more than a total of twelve months, the date on which payment of any tax is required or on which any return required by provision of the Tax Administration Act shall be filed, but no extension shall prevent the accrual of interest as otherwise provided by law.
