GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

Who files a Wage Withholding Tax Return?

File this return if you are an employer who withholds New Mexico tax from your employee.

On Form TRD-41409 report only wage withholding and do not include New Mexico tax withheld from other types of payments such as pensions and annuities or gambling winnings. Non-wage withholding is filed on a different return, the Non-wage Withholding Tax Return TRD-41409.

Who is required to withhold?

Every employer doing business in New Mexico or deriving income from within New Mexico who pays wages or other remuneration to an employee and who is required to withhold federal income tax must withhold New Mexico income tax.

An employer is a person or an employee of that person, doing business in New Mexico or deriving income from New Mexico sources who pays wages to an employee for services performed. An employer is the person having control of the payment of wages.

An employee is a New Mexico resident who performs services either within or without the state for an employer, or a nonresident of New Mexico who performs services within the state for an employer. Employers are not required to withhold New Mexico income tax from wages of nonresident employees working in New Mexico for 15 or fewer days during the calendar year.

Wages are remuneration in cash or other form for services performed by an employee for an employer.

Persons who are self-employed should not report withholding tax on their wages. Self-employed individuals should make estimated payments using the Form PIT-ES.

Determining how much to withhold

Refer to the State Withholding Tax Tables to determine the amounts to withhold found in the publication FYI-104, New Mexico Withholding Tax, available online at www.tax.newmexico.gov/forms-publications.aspx or through your local district office. No withholding is required if the total withholding for an employee during any one month is less than one dollar.

For New Mexico residents the employer is required to withhold New Mexico income tax from all wages of the employee regardless of the employee's work location. For nonresident employees, the employer is required to withhold New Mexico income tax only from wages the employee earns within the state. Refer to definitions of "employer," "employee" and "wages" to determine if withholding tax is required.

NOTE: Reporting withholding information to the Department of Workforce Solutions and the Workers Compensation Administration does not fulfill your obligation to report and pay withholding tax to the Taxation and Revenue Department. Taxpayers must still file and pay using one of the methods described in the above paragraph.

WHAT TO KNOW AND DO BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Getting Ready

Follow these steps before you start filling out your TRD-41414, Wage Withholding Tax Return:

1. Collect all forms and schedules you are required to file, publications you need to reference, and all your tax records.

For a description of different forms and schedules, see Required Forms and Attachments starting on page 4 of these instructions. To find out where to get the forms and schedules you need, see Contacting the Department on page 1.

2. Read the next section, Valid Identification Number Required, to learn about the New Mexico Business Tax Identification Number (NMBTIN), formerly known as the CRS ID. You will also need a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) in order to file a TRD-41414.

Valid Identification Number Required

Enter your business name and New Mexico Business Tax Identification Number (NMBTIN) on all forms, schedules, and correspondence you send to the Department. This number was formerly known as the combined reporting system identification number or CRS ID. The Department cannot accept a return without a valid identification number.

Important Guidelines

Review the following items before making your entries:

- Consider first preparing a working TRD-41414 so you can make mistakes and notes on it. After you complete the draft, you can neatly transfer the correct entries from your working copy to a clean TRD-41414.
- Complete using the Department's fillable form, type or print using blue or black ink. Do not use a pencil.
- Complete all required information on your form. Failure to do this delays processing your return and may cause errors when the Taxation and Revenue Department performs calculations during processing.
- Leave blank all spaces and boxes that do not apply to you. Do not draw lines through or across areas you leave blank.
- Write numbers clearly and legibly to reduce processing errors and increase efficiency. Use the boxes on the form as a guide for your handwritten entries.
- Do not use dollar signs ($) or any punctuation marks or symbols other than a comma (,).

FILING METHODS

Different Filing Methods

You can file your TRD-41414 on paper or electronically. Both options are described here to help you choose the most convenient method. The Department asks that the TRD-41414 be filed online using the Taxpayer Access Point (TAP) whenever possible. TAP is a free online filing option that can be located by going to our web site at <https://tap.state.nm.us>.

IMPORTANT: After completing your paper or electronic return, make a copy for your records and keep it in a safe place.

Benefits of Filing Electronically

The Department encourages you to file electronically whenever possible. Electronic filing is fast, safe, secure, and it provides these benefits:

- Filing is free on the Department website.
- File return, pay, and request a refund.
- View all letters sent by the Department
- View your account and see if there are any missing returns or payments.
- You can speak with an agent while viewing your account and they can walk you through using TAP or any notifications you may be seeing on your account.
- You can also provide third-party access to your accountant to be able to complete returns, file, and pay your tax due.
- The state saves tax dollars in processing costs and results in faster processing times for returns and payments submitted to the Department.

Using The Department Website, Taxpayer Access Point (TAP)

1. Logon or create a TAP account at <https://tap.state.nm.us>.

Note Each Form TRD-41414 is due on or before the 25th of the month following the end of the tax period that is being reported

No Penalty will be imposed for reporting and paying early. However, you cannot file online until after the period you are filing for has ended. Example: For the filing period that begins on January 1st and ends January 31st your Form TRD-41414 can not be filed online until February 1st.

Amended Return Check Box

Check the amended return box only if you are amending over your original return. When amending a return, fill out the return as it should have been filed to correct the previous version of the return.

Do not enter only supplemental amounts on the amended return. Enter the total correct amounts that should have been reported for the period. For example: if the original return reported the total amount of gambling withholding tax as $3500, and the actual amount should have been $4000, the amount you will enter on the return is $4000, and not just the difference of $500.

If you are amending the return, provide a short explanation of why you are amending in the space provided.

LINE 1: Number of employees.

Enter the total number of employees that you are withholding for in this period. Include only employees whose New Mexico wage withholding tax you are paying during this filing period.

LINE 2: Gross New Mexico Wages.

Enter the gross New Mexico wages paid from which the total New Mexico wage withholding tax is being reported.

LINE 3: Total New Mexico Wage Withholding Tax.

Enter the total amount of New Mexico wage withholding tax that you are reporting in this period.

LINE 4: Business-related tax credits applied from Schedule CR, line A:

Business-related business tax credits applied from Schedule

CR, line A. Attach Schedule CR. The amount on this line should not be more than line 3.

If you are eligible, do the following:

- Complete Schedule CR.
- From Schedule CR, line A, enter the total amount you claimed and applied to your tax due on TRD-41414, line 3.
- From Schedule CR, line B, enter the total amount of tax credit that may be refunded to you, on TRD-41414, line 9. See instructions for line 9.
- Attach Schedule CR (and any required forms or documentation to support your claim) to your TRD-41414.

For information about these credits, see the instructions for Schedule CR.

LINE 5: Net Wage Withholding Tax.

Subtract line 4 from line 3 and enter the amount here.

LINE 6: Penalty.

If you file late and owe tax, or if you do not pay the tax on or before the date your return is due, enter penalty here.

Penalty is applied for failure to pay or file on time. Penalty is calculated at a rate of 2% of Line 4 per month or partial month (any fraction of a month is a full month) the TRD-41414 or payment is late, up to 20% of the tax due or a minimum of $5.00, whichever is greater.

THE MINIMUM $5.00 PENALTY IS ALSO IMPOSED FOR FAILURE TO FILE THIS FORM EVEN IF NO TAX IS DUE.

Calculate penalty by multiplying the unpaid amount of tax due on line 4 by 0.02 (2%). Then multiply this product by the number of months or partial months for which your return or payment is late. The result cannot exceed 20% of the tax due.

If you want the Department to calculate the penalty and send you the bill, leave the line blank.

Department Process for Penalty Due

The Department sends you a bill or, if you are due a refund, reduces your refund by the amount of the penalty due.

LINE 7: Interest.

If you do not pay the income tax due on or before the original due date of your return, even if you receive an extension of time to file, add interest.

If you want the Department to calculate interest for you, leave the line blank. The Department calculates the interest and sends you a bill for interest due.

Interest is calculated daily but the rate will be set at the rate established for individual income tax purposes by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The IRC rate, which changes quarterly, is announced by the IRS in the last month of the previous quarter. The annual and daily interest rates for each quarter are posted on our website at <http://www.tax.newmexico.gov/Individuals/penalty-interest-rates.aspx>.

Example: Taxpayer's tax due on Line 4 is $1,000. The payment due is fifteen days late.

To calculate the interest due: multiply $1,000 by the daily rate of 0.01643856% (the daily interest rate for the 2nd quarter of 2019). The result is $0.16438356, which is the interest due for one day. Multiply $0.1643856 by fifteen (the number of days the payment is late). The interest is $2.465753425. (Round this number to the nearest cent) Enter the interest due of $2.47 on Line 8.

Tax Due X Quarterly Interest X Number of Days Late = Interest Due
 $$1,000 \times 0.00016438356 \times 15 = \2.465753425

NOTE: You are not liable for interest if the total interest due is less than $1.00.

IMPORTANT: When you pay your principal tax liability, interest stops accruing. Because it stops accruing, you do not need to calculate the amount of interest due on your return past the date you pay the principal tax.

LINE 8: Total Amount Due.

Add Lines 5, 6 and 7. A TRD-41414 payment should not be combined on the same check or money order with any other tax or fee being paid to the Department. If possible include your New Mexico Business Tax Identification Number (NMBTIN), formerly known as your CRS number, and the tax period the payment is for in the note section of your check or money order.

Paying Your Taxes

If you owe tax, you will be given the option to pay your tax once you are finished filing your return through TAP <https://tap.state.nm.us/Tap/>. You may use a credit card for an online payment or pay by electronic check, or mail a check or money order to the Department.

NOTE: A convenience fee is applied for using a credit card. The State of New Mexico uses this fee, calculated on the transaction amount, to pay charges from the credit card companies. There is no charge for an electronic check.

Make your check or money order payable to New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department, and write your NMBTIN (formerly CRS ID) and TRD-41414 on your payment.

Please send your completed Form TRD-41414 with payment and WWT-PV to:

NM Taxation and Revenue Department
P.O. Box 25128

LINE 9 : Refundable business-related tax credits applied, from Schedule CR, line B.

Refundable business-related business tax credits applied from Schedule CR, line B. Attach Schedule CR and RPD-41071, Application for Tax Refund.

- High Wage Jobs tax credit, under certain circumstances

LINES 10. Overpayment,

Enter the difference between line 8 and 9 on line 10, OR if you are filing an amended return, if there was an overpayment of tax, enter the amount here. Complete RPD-41071, Application for Tax Refund.

If you owe penalty or interest the Department will reduce your overpayment by penalty and interest amounts.

1. Check the figures and your arithmetic on your TRD-41414 and on all your attachments. Make sure these are original forms and schedules.
2. If you created a working TRD-41414, use blue or black ink to carefully transfer your figures onto the clean TRD-41414 you plan to submit.
3. Sign and date your TRD-41414.

INTEREST AND PENALTIES

Interest

Interest accrues on tax that is not paid on or before the due date of your return.

Important: Interest is a charge for the use of money and by law it cannot be waived.

Important: Because the Department bills you for any penalty or interest due on your return, you do not need to calculate the amount of penalty or interest due. If penalty and interest are due, you can leave these field blank on your return.

When you pay your principal tax liability, penalty and interest stop accruing.

Negligence Penalty for Late Filing or Late Payment

If you file late and owe tax, or if you do not pay your tax when due, you receive a penalty of 2% of the tax due for each month or part of a month you do not file the return or you do not pay the tax, up to a maximum of 20%.

This penalty applies when your failure to timely file or pay is due to negligence or disregard of the rules and regulations, but without intent to defraud.

Tax Fraud

A person is guilty of tax fraud if the person:

- Falsifies any return, statement, or other document;
- Willfully assists, procures, advises, or counsels the filing of a false return, statement, or document;
- Files any return electronically, knowing the information on the return is not true and correct as to every material matter; or
- Removes, conceals, or releases or aids in the removal, concealment, or release of any property on which levy is authorized by the Department.

Whoever commits tax fraud may be found guilty of a petty misdemeanor, misdemeanor, fourth degree felony, third degree felony, or second degree felony. Additional information can be located under Section 7-1-73 NMSA 1978.

Returned Check Penalty

A check that is not paid by a financial institution does not constitute payment. A penalty of $20 is assessed for a bad check in addition to other penalties that may apply to a late payment.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE TAX LAW

Your Rights

To help avoid tax problems, keep accurate tax records and stay current with tax law changes. Information in these instructions and other Department publications help you do both.

While you can resolve most tax problems informally, it is important to understand you must exercise certain rights provided to you under law within specific time frames. If the Department makes an adjustment to your return, the Department sends you a notice explaining the adjustment and the procedures to use if you disagree.

Useful Publications

Publication FYI-402, Taxpayer Remedies and FYI-406, Your Rights Under the Tax Law are available at www.tax.newmexico.gov. At the top, click FORMS & PUBLICATIONS,

Refunds

If the Department denies your claim for refund in whole or in part, you may file a protest with the Department within 90 days of either mailing or service of the denial, or you may file a lawsuit with the Santa Fe District Court.

If the Department requests additional relevant documentation from you, the claim is not complete until the documentation is received within the specified time period. The date the complete claim is submitted will determine when the 180 days begin. If you do not provide the additional requested relevant documentation, the claim for refund remains incomplete and will not be processed.

New Mexico Taxpayer Bill of Rights

Most tax transactions happen without problems. Sometimes, thought, troubles arise through misunderstanding, mathematical error, missed deadlines, lost papers, high volume of transactions and many other situations. Changes in the law may make earlier information outdated. Over the years the Legislature and the Department have created ways to handle difficulties according to the provisions of the state tax code. Following are some of your rights as outlined in Sections 7-1-4.1 through 7-1-4.3 NMSA 1978:

- The right to available public information and prompt and courteous tax assistance;

- The right to receive an explanation of audit results and the basis for audits, assessments or denials of refunds that identify tax, interest or penalty due;
- The right to seek review through formal or informal proceedings of findings or unfavorable decisions arising from determinations during audit or protest procedures according to Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978 and the Administrative Hearings Office Act;

- The right to an abatement of an assessment of taxes incorrectly, erroneously or illegally made (Section 7-1-28 NMSA 1978) and a right to seek a compromise of an asserted tax liability. When the Secretary of Taxation and Revenue in good faith doubts that you owe us what we claim you owe, you also have the right to seek a compromise if one exists in your particular case (Section 7-1-20 NMSA 1978);
- The right to clear information of the consequences if a tax assessment is not paid, secured, protested or otherwise provided for according to Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978. If you become a delinquent taxpayer, upon notice of delinquency you have the right to timely notice of collection actions that require sale or seizure of your property under the Tax Administration Act, and
- The right to apply to pay your tax obligations by installment payment agreements according to the provisions of Section 7-1-21 NMSA 1978.

Confidentiality Provisions:

Statutes protecting the privacy of your taxes are strict and are outlined in Sections 7-1-8 through 7-1-8.11 NMSA 1978. Section 7-1-8.2 NMSA 1978 limits requiring the Department to answer questions about whether a taxpayer is registered to do business in New Mexico or is registered for other tax programs. It does not allow employees to say whether you have filed a return. Employees may discuss your account only with you or your authorized representative. A hearing officer's written ruling on questions of evidence or procedure pursuant to the Administrative Hearings Office Act are in the public domain. The name and identification number of the taxpayer requesting the ruling are not public record. Public record includes the monthly gasoline tax reports of numbers of gallons of gasoline and ethanol-blended fuels received and deducted, and the tax paid by each filer or taxpayer pays. Identities of rack operators, importers, blenders, suppliers or distributors and the number of gallons of gasoline and other fuels are public record. The Department may reveal to the Gaming Control Board the tax returns of license applicants and their affiliates.

Audit Provisions:

The Department must provide you with written, dated notice that an audit is about to begin on a specific date, and the notice must tell you which tax programs and reporting periods will be covered. We must issue a second notice, which states any outstanding records or books of account requested and not yet received, between 60 and 180 days after the audit begins. If you do not produce the records within 90 days, the Department can issue an assessment of tax on the basis of the information as it stands. If you need additional time, you must submit a specific request in writing. Interest on outstanding liabilities accrues if the Department does not issue an assessment within 180 days of the notice of outstanding records or books, or within 90 days after time has expired under your request for additional time; however, you are entitled to an abatement of interest for the period of time after you have complied with Department requests and the Department has not acted on the audit.

Administrative Hearing Procedures:

A hearing officer may not engage or participate in any way in the enforcement or formulation of general tax policy other than to conduct hearings. You may request the Chief Hearing Officer of the Administrative Hearings Office determine if a hearing officer has engaged or participated in the enforcement or formulation of tax policy and if the hearing officer's activities have affected his or her impartiality. The Chief Hearing Officer may designate another hearing officer for the matter. Hearing officers may not communicate unilaterally about a matter you have protested while that matter is still pending. The chief hearing officer may appoint another hearing officer if that occurs. You may request a written ruling on any contested question of evidence in matters in which you have filed a pending written protest. You also may request that two or more protests on related issues be combined and heard jointly, and the hearing officer shall grant the request unless it creates an unreasonable burden on the Department.

Credit Claims:

The Department has 180 days from the filing date to approve or deny a statutory tax credit. If it does not act, the credit is approved. The Secretary decides whether a refund of tax due you may be offset against your other tax liabilities, and you will receive notice that the refund will be made accordingly. You are entitled to interest until the tax liability is credited with the refund amount. Please see the paragraph above on "Audit Provisions" for interest due to you if the Department does not offset a refund or credit against your other tax liabilities within the prescribed time. The Department may make a direct refund of overpaid taxes to the taxpayer without requiring the taxpayer to file a refund claim. The Department does not have to pay interest on credits or refunds if it applies the amount to a tax interception program, to an estimated payment, or to offset prior liabilities of the taxpayer.

Awarding of Costs and Fees:

If you prevail in an administrative or court proceeding brought by you or against you after July 1, 2003, under the Tax Administration Act, you may be entitled to a judgment or a settlement for reasonable administrative costs connected to the action.

Penalty:

The Department may not assess penalty against you if you fail to pay tax when due because of a mistake of law made in good faith and on reasonable grounds. If the Secretary determines that it is unfair to hold a spouse or former spouse liable for payment of unpaid taxes, the Secretary may decline to take action against the spouse or former spouse of the person who actually owes the tax. In extreme cases of delinquency under Section 7-1-53 NMSA 1978 the Department may enjoin a taxpayer from continuing in business after a hearing and until the delinquency is cleared.
